Salads everywhere, rejoice! You've been gifted a year's worth of real-deal balsamic vinegar that's good enough to drink.

Every 3 months for the next year, you'll receive a bottle of aged balsamic vinegar made by Antica Acetaia La Secchia, one of the vinegar houses in Italy's Modena region (where all the best balsamic is made). Their I.G.P.-certified vinegar is aged in 5 different types of wood barrels, giving it all of its complex and exciting layers of flavor.

A few drops of it + a hunk of Parmigiano Reggiano cheese + a glass of vino rosso = Perfetto.
